

Parents Challenge Commitment Statements

Please acknowledge commitment.

In accepting a Scholarship or Grant to support school choice, we ask the following commitments be accepted as your decision to advocate for your child(ren) during and throughout the school year. It is agreed by accepting the financial assistance, that no liability will be attributed to Parents Challenge for the assistance.

	We will be engaged in the monitoring of our child(ren)'s homework (administered by the school or us as parents).
	We will make sure our child(ren) attend school and are on-time.
	We promise to keep abreast of the academics of our child(ren) and report such progress to Parents Challenge on a semester and yearly basis.
	We will report all assessment data that will show our child(ren)'s academic progress on a quarterly, semester or yearly basis, as requested.
	To support my child(ren)'s education, we will pay any additional funds to keep our child engaged in the activities that will promote a "whole child" experience.
	We will keep abreast of all financial payments to schools where our child(ren) is/are enrolled and we will submit financial request that support the academic enhancement plans for our child(ren).
	We agree (unless legally binding) that we will allow Parents Challenge to photograph, interview or print information on our family.
	We agree to volunteer a minimum of 10 hours per semester at our school of choice or volunteer in the community at an organization of our choice.
	We agree that any information submitted or provided to Parents Challenge becomes the property of the organization.
	We will provide opportunities for our child(ren) to become life-long readers and learners, i.e. join the library, go to museums, participate in an afterschool program or weekend outings.

I, the undersigned, understand that awarding scholarships/grants is the sole responsibility of Parents Challenge. Parents Challenge decisions are final and all scholarships/grants are renewed at its discretion. Meeting the Parents Challenge eligibility criteria does not in any way guarantee scholarship/grant awards.

I also understand that at the discretion of Parents Challenge Management and Board of Directors, Parents Challenge reserves the right to revise program guidelines and scholarship/grant awards at any time without advanced notice.

Therefore I do hereby certify that I understand and agree to all of the above terms and conditions of this statement and further agree to comply with the other accountabilities and commitments of this program upon acceptance of scholarship/grant.
