Thank you Jordan Fenton and Linda Garcia Plett for a delightful morning and the prettiest little nails for this bright and cheerful day!

Guys, if y'all haven't used Color Street Nails for your little girls then you need to buy some. I dread when my girls ask me to paint their nails, they always mess them up while I'm waiting for them to dry and it takes forever, and I end up with nail polish on some piece of furniture. This was so easy, and the petite sizes fit Becca perfectly. Worth every single penny. Y'all need to get with Jordan Fenton and get some for your little girls and stop using polish for real.
